

Big Idea

Love as God loves.

The command to “love one another” means putting our passion in action for the greater good of another human being. This kind of love originates from God (1 John 4:7a).

When we allow God’s love for us to inspire our love for one another, we will experience several important flavors of having new life in Jesus.

Flavor 1: The assurance of knowing the love of God (4:7b-10).

Flavor 1: The assurance of knowing the love of God (4:7b-10).
Flavor 2: The privilege of demonstrating the love of God (4:11-16).

Flavor 1: The assurance of knowing the love of God (4:7b-10).
Flavor 2: The privilege of demonstrating the love of God (4:11-16).
Flavor 3: The confidence of standing in the love of God (4:17-19).

Flavor 1: The assurance of knowing the love of God (4:7b-10).
Flavor 2: The privilege of demonstrating the love of God (4:11-16).
Flavor 3: The confidence of standing in the love of God (4:17-19).
Flavor 4: The affirmation of expressing our love for God (4:20-5:4).