

2. The King is praised. (19:35–40)

2 Samuel 6:14–16 David, wearing a linen ephod, danced before the LORD with all his might, while he and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of trumpets. As the ark of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window.

And when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him in her heart.

2 Samuel 6:20–23 When David returned home to bless his household, Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him and said,

“How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today, disrobing in the sight of the slave girls of his servants as any vulgar fellow would!” David said to Michal,

“It was before the LORD, who chose me rather than your father or anyone from his house when he appointed me ruler over the LORD’s people Israel—

I will celebrate before the LORD. I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you spoke of,

I will be held in honor.” And Michal daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.”

Luke 19:40 “I tell you, if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out.”

Psalm 113:3 “From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the Lord is to be praised”

Isaiah 55:12 “... the mountains and the hills will burst into song before you and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.”

Matthew 27:50–51 ...he gave up his spirit. At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The Earthy shook and the rocks split.

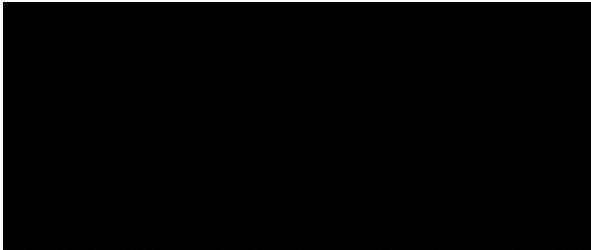

3. The King is weeping. (19:41–44)

Luke 19:41–44 As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side.

They will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls.

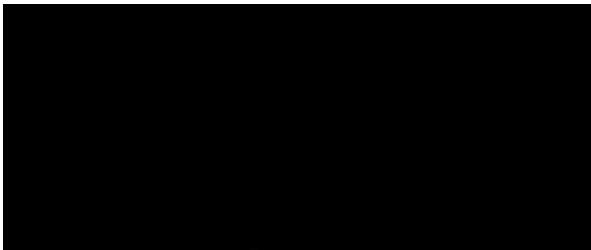

They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of God's coming to you."

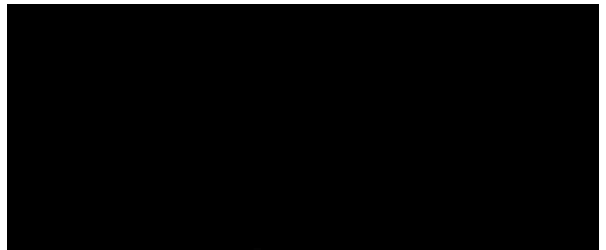

Big Idea:
Save me from myself.

Luke 19:42 "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes."

Psalm 81:13 "If my people would but listen to me, if Israel would follow my ways"

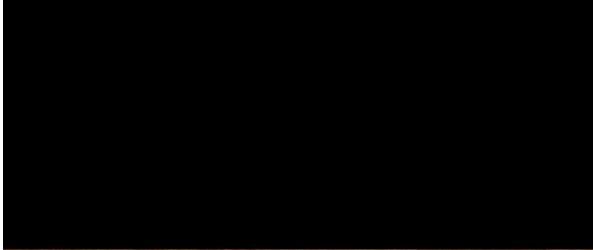

Isaiah 48:18 "If only you had paid attention to my commands, your peace would have been like a river, your righteousness like the waves of the sea..."
